

Serving on the MPSEOC Executive Board aligns with my core professional values. The opportunity to advocate for life-long learning, inclusivity, intentional community while building pathways for students interested in all forms of education would a be a personal and professional delight.